

The aim of the platform is to create a community of Polish scientists, professionals and students who gain their experience abroad.

Where business meets science, science business, and everyone gets to meet each other.

Poles abroad

- Are successful in the world
- Want to contribute to the development of the country
- Are willing to get involved in the Polish circles and are interested in the current affairs

Community challenges

- Returning to Poland and searching for new professional challenges
- Collaboration with Poles in Poland and abroad.
- The need for support and information for those wishing to leave Poland.
- Tracking the achievements of compatriots; their research results or professional successes.

Our objectives

Popularisation

Promoting the results of scientific research and the professional achievements of the community members.

Community

Networking with other scientists and professionals.

Exhibition

Space for establishing new collaborations in Poland and abroad.

FOR RESEARCHERS AND PROFESSIONALS

The Coopernicus platform enables the exposure of scientific and business activities to the Polish market, popularization of research, networking and access to offers of employment and cooperation with companies and institutions in Poland.

FOR STUDENTS

Searching for information on specific areas of science and business, students will be able to follow the profiles of scientists and entrepreneurs in our community and look for inspiration for further development.

FOR READERS

For all those interested in Polish science, the latest research and the activities of Poles abroad, we will create articles and podcasts covering the most interesting topics and achievements.

Platform components

- experience or education acquired abroad

Our Community

We are already in more than 250 cities all over the world!

We have built a database of more than 10,000 potential users, who we are actively working to recruit for the project. Every community member is being vetted before being allowed to join the platform. Hence, we can guarantee our community remains exclusive.

Partners

We cooperate and actively engage with organisations for Poles abroad.

We have also initiated talks with large institutions and companies regarding cooperation on the project.
